

Name _____

Catechism Assignment – Sixth Commandment

1. What is marriage? (Write out the first sentence to the answer to Question 65)

_____ was created by _____ as the _____ union of a _____ and a _____ for their _____ _____ and joy and for the _____ and nurturing of
_____.

2. What is adultery? (Write out the answer to Question 66)

Adultery is the _____ of a _____ who engages in or _____ sexual intercourse with _____ to whom he or she is not _____.

3. Does this commandment apply only to husbands and wives? (Write out the answer to Question 67)

_____. The principle of sexual _____ in this commandment applies to all _____ beings, whether _____ or not, and to all _____ of sexual _____ and _____.

4. How do we fear and love God in keeping the Sixth Commandment? (Write out the answer to Question 68:A-E)

We fear and love God by living as men and women who respect God's purposes for marriage. We do so by

a. _____ our bodies as _____ - set _____ for the purposes which God _____ as _____ and _____ and not as _____ that serve our _____.

b. _____ and _____ to one another as male in family in _____ that _____ rather than tear down (such as _____ talk, _____ comments about appearances, or _____ dress.

c. _____ for marriage rather than _____ or _____ of marriage.

d. _____ from _____ desire or _____ of any kind, whether _____, _____, _____ or _____.

e. _____ our husband or wife as a _____ of God and _____ him or her _____.

5. Why did God establish marriage? (Write out the answer to Question 69:A-C)

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____, societies and creation as a _____ may _____ through procreation and the
_____ of children.

6. What does the Bible affirm about people who are not married? (Write out the answer to Question 71)

Our _____, worth, or completeness as _____ beings is _____ determined by our _____ status but by our Redeemer and Creator.

7. What is the Christian view of living together apart from marriage, also call cohabitation? (Write out the answer to Question 72 – first sentence only)

God's _____ for our lives is _____ in several ways

when a _____ and a _____ live together is a _____ relationship without being married. Cohabitation fails to _____ God's gift of marriage.

8. What does the Bible say about divorce and remarriage? (See Question 74)

God _____ divorce except for _____ _____ (adultery and malicious desertion). Tragically, adultery and malicious desertion can _____ the _____ one-flesh union that God has given. The _____ allows for the possibility of divorce and remarriage in these circumstances. Because divorce always involves
_____, it requires _____ and
_____.

9. What is the Christian view of pornography? (Summarize Question 75:A-C – ask your parents for help if you struggle with this question.)

10. What does the Bible say about same-sex marriage? (See Question 76)

God created us male or female and established marriage as a lifelong union between a _____ and a _____. Because of their _____, a man and a woman _____ each other and are able, wherever God wills it, to bear _____ and nurture them. _____ - _____ rejects God's _____ and is not a _____ marriage.

11. What is the Christian perspective on persons who are confused about their sexual identity? (Write out Question 77 – only A-G)

- a. remember that our _____ is given in _____, that we are God's _____ and _____ of Heaven.
- b. _____ our identity as _____ or _____ as indicated by the _____ God gave us.
- c. _____ God's _____ for us as male and female.
- d. remember and be _____ to God's command that all _____ for _____ are to be curbed and _____ until we are _____.
- e. remember that while most people will marry, God's _____ also praises and _____ those who serve Him by _____ without marrying.
- f. seek _____ of parents and also _____, counselors, or other _____ professionals where that is needed or beneficial.
- g. _____ that God's _____ is _____ for us and to _____ to Christ for daily _____, _____, and contentment.

Signature of Parent/Guardian _____